DIVINE WORD COLLEGE
12 Day Tour of
THAILAND AND VIETNAM
April 9 – April 20, 2010

I invite you to travel with me on a once in a lifetime trip to Vietnam and Bangkok, Thailand.

For more than 30 years, many Divine Word College students have come from Vietnam or from families of Vietnamese heritage. During the end of the Vietnam War and for years after, the people of South Vietnam chose to escape their country for a better life, many coming to the United States. Despite the difficulties they experienced, their strong Catholic faith has never wavered. This is your opportunity to visit this beautiful country with its many wonderful sights, sounds and smells and experience firsthand the homeland of many Divine Word College students.

Our journey together will begin with a day of sightseeing in Bangkok, Thailand then on to Vietnam with stops in Hanoi, Hue, Danang, Hoi An and Saigon. Our time together will end in Nha Trang, home to the largest Society of the Divine Word (SVD) mission house in Vietnam. I hope you are able to join me on this amazing journey!

Father Linh Pham, SVD
Associate Director of Development for Vietnamese Outreach at Divine Word College

ITINERARY

DAY 1: Fri., April 9 - Los Angeles/En Route

Depart Los Angeles for your flight to Bangkok. Meals will be served in flight.

DAY 2: Sat., April 10 - En Route

You lose a day crossing the International Date Line, which you gain back on your return flight.

DAY 3: Sun., April 11 - Bangkok

Welcome to Thailand! You will be met at the airport, escorted to your waiting deluxe motor coach, and transferred to your hotel. The rest of the day is at leisure to catch up with your jet lag.

DAY 4: Mon., April 12 - Bangkok B
AM: Klong Tour and the Temple of Dawn

This morning you will cruise along the Chao Phraya River and the small canals of Thonburi. En route you will be treated to a view of the Thai lifestyle along the riverbanks. Then enjoy a visit to the Temple of Dawn, which stands beside the Chao Phraya River. The temple is composed of a brick core embedded with millions of fragments of Chinese porcelain.

PM: Grand Palace and Wat Po

Visit the Grand Palace Complex, which includes the Temple of the Emerald Buddha. The Palace is said to be one of the wonders of the modern world and has within its grounds an exotic Buddhist temple housing a fabulous solid Jade Buddha. You will also visit the Royal Funeral Hall and the Royal Coronation Hall. Your next stop is Wat Po, which is the largest and oldest temple in Bangkok.

DAY 5: Tues., April 13 - Bangkok/Hanoi B

After breakfast you will be transferred to Suvarnabhumi Airport for your flight to Hanoi. Enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

DAY 6: Wed., April 14 - Hanoi B
AM: Sightseeing Tour of Hanoi

Start with a visit to the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum, the final resting place of Ho Chi Minh. It is a glass sarcophagus set deep in the bowels of a monumental edifice that has become a site of pilgrimage.

Your next stop is the Temple of Literature, which is a peaceful series of walled courtyards and graceful gateways. Founded in 1070, this was also the site of Vietnam's first university. Then visit the One Pillar Pagoda. The pagoda was built in 1049 by Emperor Ly Thai Tong. It was then burned by the French in 1954 and restored in 1955. The pagoda contains a statue of Quan An, the Goddess of Mercy.

See the magnificent Opera House, which was built in 1911. Proceed to St. Joseph's Cathedral. The Cathedral is noteworthy for its square towers, elaborate altar, and stained-glass windows.

Explore the Old Quarter of Hanoi by Cyclo. This fascinating network of narrow alleys and shop houses is also known as "the 36 Streets." Each street is named after the merchandise traditionally sold there.

Later you will experience a Water Puppet Show. This fantastic art form originated in northern Vietnam.

DAY 7: Thurs., April 15 - Hanoi/Halong Bay
Cruise/Hanoi B,L

AM: Halong Bay Scenic Cruise
Depart from Hanoi in the morning for scenic Halong Bay. Embark on a cruise on a traditional wooden boat among the emerald waters and craggy limestone cliffs of Halong Bay. Sail past picturesque islands, floating villages, and pearl fisheries.

Lunch: Enjoy a seafood lunch on the boat.

DAY 8: Fri., April 16 - Hanoi/Hue B

Today you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Hue.

Visit to the Old Imperial City of Hue

Located in the heart of Hue is the Imperial Citadel, a vast complex built in the early 19th century and modeled after the Forbidden City of Peking. Today, most of the buildings have been destroyed due to bombing during the Vietnam-American War, but the monuments that remain provide a fascinating glimpse into the court life of the Nguyen Dynasty. Arrive at the imposing Ngo Mon Gate, the main entrance to the Imperial Enclosure. Visit the Dien Tho Palace where the Queen Mother lived. You will also visit Thai Hoa Palace, with its magnificently decorated Reception

Hall, the Halls of the Mandarins, and the original Nine Dynastic Urns.

Visit to the Tombs of Tu Duc and Khai Dinh

Next, visit the Imperial Tomb of Tu Duc. Tu Duc, the longest reigning Vietnamese Emperor, designed and built this elegant tomb, using it as a retreat for meditation, reading, and theater performances. See the Imperial Tomb of Khai Dinh, dramatically located on a hillside.

DAY 9: Sat., April 17 - Hue/Danang/Hoi An B

Depart Hue and travel over scenic mountainous roads to Hoi An. Stop en route in Danang. Halfway between Danang and Hue lies the dramatic Hai Van Pass, the high dividing line between the climate zones of North and South Vietnam. Pass Lang Co, a lovely stretch of beach curving outward between a clear blue lagoon and the South China Sea.

Tour of Danang

Upon your arrival in Danang, enjoy a tour of the Cham Museum, which houses the finest collection of Cham sculpture in the world. Briefly pass China Beach, a famous spot for American soldiers during the Vietnam-American War. Continue south to Hoi An, stopping en route to visit the Marble Mountains, five stone hillocks, once islands, which now rise sharply from the surrounding rice fields.

Walking Tour of Hoi An

Hoi An is a picturesque riverside town south of Danang. Your walking tour starts with a visit to the Japanese Covered Bridge Pagoda. The first bridge on this site was constructed in 1593 by the Japanese community of Hoi An to link the town with the Chinese quarters across the stream. Continue to the Sa Huynh Museum, which contains exhibitions from the earliest period of Hoi An's history.

Next, visit the Tran Family Chapel. This house for worshipping ancestors was built about 200 years ago. Your next stop is the Phuoc Kien Assembly Hall. The Chinese pagoda was built around 1690 and then restored and enlarged in 1900. The temple is dedicated to the Goddess of the Sea and Protector of Sailors and Fishermen. Then visit one of the lantern making workshops.
